Date of Print: July 23, 2007
P.D. Case #: 07-38655

On Monday, July 23, 2007, at approximately 12:04 pm, the Egg Harbor Township Police communications received a call of a structure fire at the end of Luis Avenue in the Farmington section of the township.

The Farmington Volunteer Fire Department assisted by Cardiff and Bargaintown Fire Departments responded to the scene. The fire was under control within fifteen minutes of the first fire apparatus arriving.

The structure was a vacant single family home that can be seen from Tilton Road near the Garden State Parkway Overpass. It was apparent that vagrants were living inside prior to the fire. There was no electric to the building. The Township Fire Official and Investigator Don Stauffer stated that the cause of the fire is currently ruled "undetermined" while the incident is still being investigated.
