P.D. Case #: 10-15320

On Thursday, March 18, 2010 the Egg Harbor Township Police Department became aware of missing funds from a Township bank account. We are investigating the missing funds believed caused by an outside intrusion into a municipal banking account. This incident is being investigated by Detective Anthony Merendino of the Egg Harbor Township Police Department Detective Bureau assisted by the Atlantic County Prosecutors Office and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Township residents who use their computers for banking, shopping or other financial transactions are reminded that criminals have become sophisticated with their scams. Emails can appear to originate from your bank, or other legitimate location, and when opened can cause great financial damage. Use extra care with your email and where you may send/enter any personal information.
